Pink Your Porch (Affiliate-wide)

Pink Your Porch (PYP) is in its third year as a unique awareness campaign for the Northern Indiana Affiliate. With PYP pink light bulbs are sold for $5 each and individuals are encouraged to put them in porch lights for the month of October. PYP is fun way to create awareness. This year Martin's Supermarkets will be selling the pink light bulbs in 16 of its locations in Northern Indiana, as well as all Walgreen's stores in the South Bend area and stretching east to the Fort Wayne area. Between the Buns restaurants will also be selling light bulbs at all locations and radio station, B100, will be promoting the campaign on air.

Panera Pink Ribbon Bagels (South Bend/Mishawaka)

Starting October 1st and lasting through the end of the month, Panera will be offering pink ribbon bagels. Bagels are made with cherry chips, dried cherries, cranberries, vanilla, honey and brown sugar. 10 cents from every bagel purchased during the month will go to the Northern Indiana Affiliate, with the exception that on October 7th 100% of proceeds from the sale of the bagel will go to the Affiliate.

Jersey Mike's (Affiliate-wide)

Jersey Mike's will donate 70 cents per plastic pink cup that is sold and 70 cents per sub combo sold and 100% of the retail price of each t-shirt sold to Susan G. Komen in the month of October.

Corndance Tavern (Mishawaka)

Corndance invites you to "Round Up for Komen" during Breast Cancer Awareness month. Throughout the month of October, you can round up your bill to the next $1, $5, etc. 100% of the funds collected during October will be donated to Komen Northern Indiana. In addition, Corndance will be matching up to 15% of your contributions.

Lighthouse Mall (Michigan City)

Lighthouse Outlet Mall will be collecting donations throughout the month of October with a special coupon book that will be sold on the weekend of October 22 and 23.
